

Women in the NJ Workplace: Breaking the Glass Ceiling

- Is there really a glass ceiling for women?
- If so, how do you get through it?
- How does a woman balance a high-powered career with parenting?

A panel discussion featuring:

Sharon Taylor

Sr. Vice President, Corp. Human Resources, Prudential Insurance
Chairman, The Prudential Foundation

Dr. Sindy Paul

Medical Director, NJ Dept. of Health & Senior Services, HIV/AIDS
Past President of the NJ Board of Medical Examiners

Jeannine LaRue

Vice President of Public Affairs, Rutgers University
Former Deputy Chief of Staff to Governor Corzine

Monday, March 10, 7:30 pm

Rutgers University
Ruth Dill Johnson Crockett Building – Center for Women's Programs
162 Ryders Lane, Room 104
New Brunswick, NJ 08901

Sponsors:

Middlesex County National Organization for Women (NOW)
Rutgers Department of Women's and Gender Studies
Institute for Women's Leadership

Free Admission